To Whom It May Concern:

It is a pleasure to write a recommendation based on our experiences with Ron Wackerly of Ron's Residential Repairs. Ron contracted to do several projects for us including a kitchen remodel, bathroom remodel, garage door refit and repairs to drywall due to leaking from old plumbing.

We have found Ron to be not only thoroughly professional, but courteous, punctual and thoughtful of our time. All projects have been explained to us completely. Ron gladly answered our questions and responded to our calls and inquiries in a most timely manner. Our expectations were not only understood but exceeded. It is most refreshing to deal with a contractor who takes the time to understand both his clients desires and budgetary considerations.

In short, we have found Ron Wackerly to be very professional and would be happy to consider employing his services at some future time.

Sincerely,
